Experiencing and the Creation of Meaning : Eugene T ...

In Experiencing and the Creation of Meaning, Gendlin shows how the interaction between symbols (understood very broadly) and experiencing (the flow of what's happening) IS the creation of meaning. This is deep - it goes to the root of the subject-object, mind-body dualisms that have marked Western civilization, and heals them.

Experiencing and the Creation of Meaning

Eugene Gendlin considers felt experiencing in its own right. He explores how logical order can relate concretely to felt experience. His approach makes philosophical analysis of experiencing and the creation of meaning possible. It's a most interesting book, but it's also a very difficult book to read.
