The Battle Of The Greasy

The Battle of Greasy Grass, June 25-26, 1876, also known as The Battle of Little Bighorn and Custer's Last Stand, marks a great victory for the Oceti Sakowin people. The battle's roots started with the Report on the Condition of the Indian Tribes (1867); after the report was issued, "the United States government set out to establish a series of Indian treaties that would force the Indians to give up their lands and move further west onto reservations."
